The Christian Church in the World

Church bleeds under Fulani jihad in Nigeria: Security is failing in Kaduna, a volatile Sharia state which straddles Nigeria's ethno-religious "fault-line". On the evening of Sunday 13 November Fulani Muslims besieged and attacked five villages in Kauru Local Government Area in predominantly Christian Southern Kaduna. Armed with guns, knives, machetes and explosives, the Fulani killed 45 mostly women, children and elderly Christian residents while wounding dozens more and displacing thousands. Numerous vehicles and over 120 houses (including eight house-churches) were torched. Frustrated by the endless carnage, Christian leaders have reiterated the call for more security, including the establishment of a military base in Southern Kaduna. The organised ethno-religious cleansing taking place must be seen in the context of classic Islamic jihad. With whole Christian communities eliminated, the Church is bleeding. Please pray for Nigeria and for its Church.

Terror in the Eastern Region of Uganda

On Sunday 15 January some 80 believers were praying together in Katira Church in majority-Muslim Budaka District, Eastern Region, when a mob of some 90 local Muslims attacked, angry about Muslims converting to Christianity. Dozens of believers were beaten and bound and 15 women were raped. Police took two hours to respond - only then did the attackers disperse. The pastor, Moses Mutasa, and eight other church members are missing. The following day Reverend Musa Mukenyeye intervened to ease tensions and maintain peace. He has urged the police to arrest the attackers and bring them to justice. Unfortunately, impunity has long prevailed, which is precisely why persecution has been escalating. Please pray that God will bring healing and comfort to Katira, and justice to the Eastern Region. (Isaiah 30:18b)

Pray for the United Nations, that they will be a responsible moving force to bring harmony to our chaotic world.

A Letter to the Congregation

Dear Friends,

Where and how do you experience Christian Community today? Can you define what characteristics mark it as being 'in Christ' or Christian? Christian community is about worship which forms and informs us. Christian community is about faithfulness to God.

'For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not by your own doing; it is the gift of God.' Ephesians 2:8

What spiritual practices help us to continually seek Christ? Spiritual wellbeing is both individual and communal. Which spiritual practices nourish and transform?

Is it worship, prayer, meditation, or in conversations? These practices provide encouragement to strengthen faith. Spiritual practice creates a solid foundation so we are open to receive and cultivate God's grace within us.

With faith our lives are nourished, given meaning and purpose. Faith becomes the core of our lives. Faith is a radical trust in God. Soren Kierkegaard, a nineteenth century philosopher, pens a metaphor, 'Faith as trust is like floating in a deep ocean.'

Take time to consider and explore the gift of faith. Be assured that we are nurtured and encircled by grace.

The gifts of the Spirit enable Christians to do what God calls us to do. The spiritual gifts are listed in 1 Corinthians 12:8-10, Ephesians 4:7-13 and Romans 12:3-8. They are special abilities provided by the Holy Spirit to Christians to build up the body of Christ. The question we could pose is 'How can we serve God?' As members of the body of Christ we must serve together in order for the body to be fully functional.

During March Church Councillors will be studying leadership as spiritual exercise.

Questions we will be exploring:

- Which spiritual practices are helpful?
- What helps to nurture us as followers of Christ?

Help us to be attentive to the Spirit.

Helen Stewart - Chair of Church Council

Pastoral Care Worker - Di Paterson

Hi, my name is Di Paterson and I am the new Pastoral Care Worker at GWUC, and I am delighted to introduce myself to you all. I have 3 adult children and 4 grandsons. My younger son lives and works in Canada, which is a beautiful place to visit.

I come to you with a varied work background. I was an Integration Aide for 17 years prior to going into ministry. In the past 11 years, I have had the pleasure of doing supply at Endeavour Hills UC, serving as a Pastor in the Chelsea Parish for 9 years and currently I am doing supply as a Pastor at Black Rock UC. I am passionate about my faith and enjoy sharing my joy in the relationship I have with the God of love and grace. I enjoy connecting with people and having the opportunity to share in their journeys. I am also the Lay Preacher Rep on the Synod Lay Preachers Association.

My other passions include Bushwalking - I am a member of the Bushrangers Bushwalking Club - an all-women's club. I am a member of the Emmaus Movement and I have been an Assistant Spiritual Director and Spiritual Director on the Women's Walks.

I have been a Girl Guide for most of my life and I have been a leader in all of the sections and a Guide leader trainer. Currently I am a resource leader and I have run a number of on site faith activities and served as Chaplain at International Guide camps, I am a member of the 2 Trefoil Guilds and I am also the Guide Rep on the World Day of Prayer Victorian Committee. I love Walking on the beach or in the bush anywhere especially with friends, spending time with my family, gardening and drawing.

Due to my work at Black Rock, I will not be able to catch you on a Sunday morning, but I hope to meet many of you at some of the activities during the week and perhaps at some of the evening services or if I drop in to see you. I am looking forward to getting to know you in the coming months.

Assembly Appeal for Rebuilding the Church at Mapoon

The Church Council has given permission to highlight this Assembly Appeal. The purpose is to raise funds to construct a new church for the Aboriginal community in Mapoon. Mapoon is on Cape York Peninsula. There is a sad story behind this appeal and Aaron Blakemore who was at the last UCA Assembly briefly tells the story below. You can also see a video clip on the UCA Assembly website. assembly.uca.org.au

"The Uniting Church has had a long relationship with the community of Mapoon and its traditional land owners. In short, the Presbyterian church began a mission in Mapoon in the early 1890's however both the church & the local government didn't listen to locals when they chose to close and burn down Mapoon including the church in the 1950's for aluminium mining. After 25 years of forced resettlement, the people of Mapoon began to return to their land & former town. In 1990 former UCA President Sir Ronald Wilson apologised to the Mapoon community for the UCA predecessor church's failure to do more to stop such a flagrant human rights abuse. Today the community of Mapoon is growing and in deep need of a central location for their church community. The UCA and the Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress (UAICC) are in a committed covenantal relationship providing support to one another. By the UCA supporting the Mapoon appeal we are fulfilling our national covenant with the first peoples of Australia. On a personal note as a member of the 14th National Assembly of the UCA, I formed a friendship with a young adult leader from Mapoon. She described to me her desire to see the church built soon, as she wants to be able to honour her elders who lived through the burning of their church. She wants to give them the joy and hope of seeing a church built on the original site for the stability and future of the church in Mapoon."

Donations can be left at the office or placed in an envelope in the offering plate marked "Mapoon".

An opportunity not to miss - Church and the Future

St Luke's Mount Waverley are inviting our members to come and hear and engage with Associate Professor John Flett from Pilgrim Theological College at the CTM where he was appointed to teach Missiology.

St Luke's write "We are all aware that the life of local congregations is not what it was when many of us joined the church. We struggle to understand the reasons for this, wonder what the future holds for our and neighbouring congregations and the implications for how we are currently operating."

John will help us think through such issues and more. John is a gifted communicator and presenter and well worth hearing. (Ask Heather Hon about John).

When: Saturday 25 March - 10am to 4pm

Where: St Luke's Uniting Church
(cnr Essex and Park Roads, Mt Waverley).

Bring your own lunch. A cuppa is provided.

Neil is attending and would like some company from this congregation if we are to get the most out of this opportunity.

Extracts from Ministry Team Report to Church Council in February

Christmas Event:

After the previous Kids' Christmas event we were keen to again build on our kids Christmas it.

After registration, we gathered for afternoon tea and a fantastic magic show. We then divided the children into two groups based on age and the little ones explored the Christmas story experientially through six story telling tents and by doing craft activities. The older group learned the Christmas story through survivor-like challenges in teams. The feedback we received was good and we had over fifty children attend. Registrations were light on, as usual, until a few days before the event. A huge thank you to all the volunteers; we truly couldn't do it without such a great group of willing and enthusiastic volunteers.

Christmas services:

We hope that the Christmas services went well. We were intentional about the services reflecting all our diverse styles of worship and hope that people engaged in worship. We tried a very interactive service for 7.30pm Christmas Eve with lots of the service reliant on participation; the children participated beyond our expectations.

NCYC Yurora:

The eleven of us that went to NCYC had a great time and really enjoyed the different elements of the trip. It was great to have some of the guys share at a service in January and we hope that more might share in February. The highlights included the multicultural atmosphere, electives and workshops and experiencing community with others from around the nation and overseas.

Chinese New Year:

Came very fast this year and we are again so blessed to have an amazing group of volunteers who see this as their outreach priority. The team again filled hundreds of show bags, got ready hundreds of kids crafts and hosted and crafted the whole day on Sunday. This year we were a little quieter in our tent towards the afternoon (we think due to the rain forecast) which created more space and this year I had many conversations about our church and what we offer for Children & Families. People were very impressed that it was free and that the church wants to celebrate the new year with them and that it was volunteers helping. (I can't wait to see how our community planter would grow and engage these connections even more.)

Children & Families Camp at Anglesea:

We have ten families registered for the whole weekend and a number planning to come up for the day on Saturday. We are really looking forward to the community that will be built as a number of new families are attending. We have a very fluid and interactive time planned and will be worshipping with Trinity Uniting in Anglesea on Sunday morning.

PS: About 40 people attended and it went very well.

Devotions at Aged Care Facilities:

New roster for 2017 started in February. The leaders are Alison Clarkson, Jan Clear, Beverly McGlead, Elwyn Pederson (when available) and Colin King as emergency.

Alanee's Study Leave

Alanee will be away from 5 March until 15 march attending a Youth Ministry conference in North Carolina. She is excited that Felicity Dart, one of our youth leaders, is also attending.

Alanee looks forward to sharing with us when she returns.

STOP PRESS: An Opportunity to Pray

Next Friday the President and other Uniting Church leaders will present before the Royal Commission into Institutional Child Sexual Abuse. This will be a very challenging day for our leaders, our church, for those impacted by abuse in our church and its agencies - individuals, their family and friends. Tragically our church has not been immune from child abuse. We need to acknowledge it, apologise, be ready to make restitution and do all we can to ensure it doesn't happen again.

Let's stand with our leaders and with those affected next Friday. On Friday 10th March from 10am to 12noon the church will be open for prayer. We will pray for our leaders on that day, for our church as it responds to the issues raised, for those impacted and for perpetrators. There will be resources for prayer and people available to lead. (Neil is unable to be present but supports the initiative). Consider joining for as long as you want this time of prayer.
