Holy Communion - Sunday 29 November

In accordance with UCA Assembly guidelines for live streaming of communion the Church Council have approved communion to be celebrated as part of the live stream services. The next communion service will be held on Sunday 29 November. Some may prefer not to have communion at home as part of the service and that choice is respected. For those wishing to share in communion please have ready a small amount of bread (enough for those present) and some juice or water or appropriate drink so that you are ready to share in communion together as an online community of faithful disciples of Jesus.

Thank you

The greatest comfort for the Pooley family during our sorrow upon John's passing, were the expressions of sympathy conveyed to us in many ways. We deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness and thank you most sincerely. Rona Pooley and family.

Crosslight returns to printed format

Synod are pleased to announce the December edition of Crosslight will be printed as a hard copy magazine. It is with the printers and should be distributed throughout Victoria and Tasmania in the week Nov 30-Dec 4. For those who have become accustomed to reading the online flip-book version this year, Crosslight will also continue to be published online. Unfortunately, due to Crosslight deadlines and the continuing COVID workload on our communications team, there will be no 2021 calendars printed this year.

Church Council News

Due to current social distancing requirements relating to church buildings, no meetings will be held at the church during this time. The complex remains closed, and online worship will continue throughout November.
