

That a Call be extended to the Reverend Rosemary Carter
to fill the Vacant Minister of the Word placement at Glen Waverley Uniting Church.

Rev Rosemary Carter
54 years old
Chaplain –
Uniting Care Moreland Hall

Husband: Rev David Carter (Minister Glen Iris)
Children: Luke 28yrs, Holly 24yrs

Ordained 1996
2 Team Ministry placements in Adelaide, South Australia
Chaplain to UC Moreland Hall

Rev Rosemary Carter

Education and Training

Registered Nurse

Bachelor of Social Work

Bachelor of Theology

Grad Dip Pastoral Studies

Cert IV Business Management

Other studies

Missional Leadership, Leadership in the Christian Church,
Change Management

Experience

South Australian Council of Churches – Churches and Women Task group convenor

Synod of SA Solidarity and Justice Committee

Synod of SA Social Justice Commission

Rev Rosemary Carter

Priorities in Ministry

- Leadership of Worship and Preaching
- Engaging in new service and mission initiatives beyond traditional structures
- Fostering congregation mission and development
- Strategy Development
- Working through profound change

Rev Rosemary Carter

Faith and Theology

- Central is her relationship with God – confidence that she is loved, accepted and free.
- Through the life and ministry of Jesus we see how to act and respond in ways that express God's love in the world
- The Spirit witnesses through the prophets, Jesus and all people of faith throughout the ages
- The Church is a community at different points of discovery, and a community of Christ, witnessing to the whole creation life, love, freedom and hope

Rev Rosemary Carter

Leadership

- Collaborative Pastoral Leadership
- Team building, coordinating, facilitative
- Likes working in Teams (both formal Ministry Teams and Lay, congregation)

Community involvement

- Emphasis on Justice, inclusiveness, wholeness.
- Interested in local and state government working groups on – multi faith, women, and mental health.

Rev Rosemary Carter

Comment from Rosemary's referee

(Chairperson of previous placement Church Council)

- Rosemary is a Team player. She is consultative and works for consensus decisions (not just endless process).
- Strength is her Pastoral Leadership. She attends to people.
- She places high importance on the preparation and delivery of worship, and she can lead both innovative and traditional styles.
- His congregation would have her back any time.

That a Call be extended to the Reverend Rosemary Carter
to fill the Vacant Minister of the Word placement at Glen Waverley Uniting Church.